HAGUE,

...py of the Agreement and Capitulation of the ...rquess de Langalerie and the Prince of Linange ...h the Great Turk.

'HE greatest and most powerful Emperour of the Turks, crowned with the Sun and ...on, &c. Having chosen us Osman Aga for Ambassadour to the High Republick of ...land, declare, that during our Stay at the ...ue, we have held several Conferences with the most mighty and most serene Landgrave Linange, Prince of the Roman Empire, ...veraign Prince of Chabanois, Grand Admi... General of the Theocracy, &c. and with ...e mighty and most noble Lord Marquess de ...angalerie, Grand Marshal General and Ge...ralissimo of the said Theocracy, &c. Which Lords have assured us that they were inclined to make War against the Pope of Rome, ...Conjunction with his Imperial Turkish Majesty; and at the same time they demonstrated ...us, that they had a Method for teaching ...e Musselmen to make War by Land and ...ea joyntly with them, to the End the most ...owerful Emperour of the Turks may the ...ooner make himself Master of Rome; promising that for this Purpose they will forthwith repair to Constantinople. Whereupon We Aga having express Order from the most powerful Emperour our Lord, and from the two Lords the Vizier and Admiral, to favour them in every Respect; do swear by Mahomet our holy Prophet, and engage in the Name of the great Emperour of the Turks our Master, that whatever is contained in the 12 Articles following shall be performed.

1. 'That the said two Lords on their Arrival at Constantinople, shall be received in the most honourable Manner possible.

2. 'His Majesty shall be obliged to appoint them Lodgings, as well within as without the City and Places in the Country, suitable to their Character and Rank.

3. 'The said Lords, with their Families, Servants, and all Persons of their Retinue, shall enjoy intire Liberty, and especially of Conscience in their Religion, without having any Molestation given them in the least thing.

4. 'The said two Lords with all their Retinue, shall be maintained at the Charge of the Grand Signior six Years successively, and shall have honourable Subsistance and Usage according to their private Agreement.

5. 'The two Lords and their Retinue shall likewise enjoy all the Liberty and Privileges which are allowed to Soveraign Princes or Ambassadours, when they reside in the Country of Potentates with whom they are in Friendship or Alliance.

6. 'His Ottoman Majesty shall give Order in Writing, when they arrive at Constantinople, for arming, recruiting, levying, exercising and disciplining, in such manner as the said two Lords shall think fit, a Body of 10000 Horse, either French or Germans of the Protestant Religion, and for building according to their Direction, 50 Capital Ships of War, which shall be put under the Command of the said Lords, the General and Admiral, to be absolutely commanded by them, and employed against the Papal Power and Dominions.

7. 'Out of Regard to the particular Inclination of the two Lords, which we have seen and observed to be to do us important Service all Christian Slaves shall be set at Liberty, on condition that they shall serve under the said two Lords and fight against the Pope.

8. 'All Christians who are desirous to settle in the Dominions of the Grand Signior, shall have all Freedom and publick Exercise of their Religion, without paying the least Tribute. Those of the Jewish Nation who are likewise disposed to settle there, shall enjoy the same Prerogative.

9. 'Assoon as the Grand Signior shall be Master of Rome, he swears and promises by Mahomet our holy Prophet, to give and yield to the two Lords the said General and Admiral, to each in particular, certain Islands and Provinces in the Mediterranean Sea, specified in their private Agreement; and to make over to them in full Soveraignty, and even to create them Kings of the East; so that their Descendents and Heirs shall for ever enjoy the same, there to Reign and Govern as Soveraigns.

10. 'His Majesty obliges himself at the same time by these Presents, to procure Satisfaction and Restitution to the said General and Admiral, of all Territories, Provinces and Estates which they have been possessed of in Europe and in France, and which have been taken from them, as set forth in the Memorial which they have caused to be presented to the Grand Signior.

11. 'We Osman Bassa, Aga of the Spahis and of the Sea declare to all who shall see these Presents, that the two Lords, the Lord Marquess de Langalerie and the Lord Landgrave de Linange Prince of Chabanois, [illegible] from this time admitted under the Protec[illegible] and into the Friendship of his Ottoma[illegible]jesty my gracious Soveraign, and that they shall be maintained in their Character.

12. 'We therefore desire all Princes, Emperours, Kings, and Republicks, our Friends, and all their General Officers, to favour in all Respects these two Lords; not to do Harm in any Manner whatsoever, directly or indirectly, to their Persons, or to any of their Retinue, either by Sea or Land, when they shall be on their Way to attend the most powerful Lord the Emperour of the Turks. Most especially we command all the Musselmen and Subjects to treat these two Lords, and all those who shall be of their Court or in their Service, with all the Honour and Service imaginable; for such is the express Will and Order of our most powerful Lord; and those who shall disobey these Orders, shall lose their Heads if the said Lords complain and accuse by Name those Persons who shall injure them. For we esteem and declare these two excellent Lords to be our Friends, and Confederates of our most powerful Emperour and Lord.

'We Osman Bassa, Aga of the Spahis and of the Sea, Ambassadour Extraordinary from the Grand Signior, have signed this Contract and Letter with our own Hand, by express Order of his Ottoman Majesty, and sealed it with our Seal and Arms. And for the greater Assurance that the Contents of these Presents shall be sacredly kept and performed, as is the Will of our most powerful Emperour of the Turks crowned with the Sun and Moon, We Swear by Mahomet to the two Lords named the Lord Landgrave de Linange, Prince of the Roman Empire, and Soveraign Prince of Chabanois, and to the most excellent Lord the Marquess de Langalerie, Lord of the ancient Barony of Poitou in Charante, President and first Gentleman of the Province of Xaintonge, Lieutenant General and Governour in the Province of Britany, Intendant of the King of France in the Province of Perigord, Lieutenant General and Field-Marshal of the Roman Empire in Italy, General Field-Marshal of the King of Poland, our Friends and Confederates of his Majesty the Emperour of the Turks crowned with

& with the Sun and Moon. Written at the Hague the 15th of the Month Zilhexi in the Year 1128.

Signed

Osman Aga.
